

Feeling
Feminine
Fiction
Forensic
Form
Freedom
French Revolution
Funding
Futurism
G-Star
Galliano
Gatzen, Pascale
Gender
Gender fluidity
Generation
Global warming
Globalization
Grassroots
Growth
Groys, Boris
H&M
Han, Byung-C
Hansen-Løve, I
Haute couture
Hell, Richard
Hess, Bart
Hierarchy
Hollander, Ann
Humor
Hype
Ideal
Identity
Image
Imagination
In 't Hout, Liesbeth
Independence
Individual
Industry
Innovation
Internet
Jacquard
Jeans

Eternal Erasure—Perspectives on Fashion Matters

A Graduation exhibition from Sandberg Instituut

Eternal Erasure— Perspectives on Fashion Matters

A Graduation exhibition from Sandberg Instituut

Official Opening: Friday June 16 2017, 18:00-22:00
Expo Open: June 17 + 18 2017, 12:00-20:00

Nieuw Dakota
Ms. Van Riemsdijkweg 41b
1033 RC Amsterdam

The one-off, two-year Master's Program Fashion Matters (2015-2017)—led by Christophe Coppens—was a research-based course challenging the position of (fashion) designers in an ever-changing world and the ways fashion is designed, produced, promoted, financed, sold and consumed.

Including works by Maaike Fransen, Sanne Karssenberg, Rafael Kouto, Duran Lantink, Fien Ploeger, Vera de Pont, Gerda Postma, Karime Salame Sainz, Mona Maria Steinhäuser, Timna Weber, Margret Wibmer.

Curated by Lukas Feireiss.
Supported by G-Star RAW.
In collaboration with Fashion Council and Meesteropleiding Coupeur Master in Craft.

G-STAR RAW

Sandberg Instituut